

Support/Kinesiology Staff

Dr.
Martha Ellis
Lee College President

Dr. Martha Ellis is in her sixth year as president of Lee College. She has led the college through a major visioning process, capital campaigns, building program, and reorganization. She is a commissioner for the Commission on Colleges for the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, President of Region XIV for the National Junior College Athletic Association, and on the Board of Directors for American Association of Community Colleges. Under her leadership Lee College is an Achieving the Dream College and one of 10 colleges and universities chosen to be part of the Clinton Climate Initiative.

Martha serves on the boards of Baytown Chamber of Commerce, the San Jacinto Methodist Hospital, Rotary Club, and the Baytown/West Chambers County Economic Development. She is actively involved in the economic development strategic planning for the community and is a frequent guest speaker for civic organizations.

Prior to Lee College, Ellis was president at Texas State Technical College in Waco. For 14 years she held various leadership positions and faculty member at Collin County Community College District, Plano, Texas. She began her professional career at Eastfield College, DCCCD.

In addition to her Ph.D. in higher education from the University of North Texas, Ellis has a Master of Science in Developmental Cognitive Psychology from the University of Texas at Dallas and a bachelor's degree from American Christian College. She completed post graduate psychology studies at Columbia University as well as an internship at the Albert Ellis Institute in New York and Harvard University. She has won numerous teaching awards, has scholarly publications, and a presenter at national conferences on leadership development, technology and cognitive development, and partnerships for economic development.

Ellis' husband, Steve, is retired from community college academic leadership and is enjoying tennis, golf, and president of the local Habitat for Humanity, Kiwanis, and the Baytown Library Board. They live in Baytown with their humane society puppy, Charlie. Steve and Martha have two married sons and one adorable granddaughter.

Chuck
Lawrence

Lee College Athletic Director

Chuck Lawrence joins the Lee College Athletic Department for the fall of 2007. He served as Assistant Athletic Director/Head Football Coach at Navarro College the previous nine years. Lawrence brings twenty two years of junior college experience having served thirteen years at Cisco Junior College, six of those years as Athletic Director and Head Football Coach. While at Cisco Junior College, Lawrence implemented women's volleyball, softball, and men and women's golf. Lawrence served nine years in the Texas high school ranks at Frankston High School, where he was Head Football Coach and the first Athletic Director in the history of the school. He also coached at Jacksonville High School and Cumby High School.

Lawrence is currently the Past President of the National Junior College Football Coaches Association having served as President in 2005 and 2006. He is also the Permanent Secretary of the American Community College Football Coaches Association. He was awarded the George Sekul Outstanding Community College Coach Award by the All American Football Foundation in 2006 and has been a member of the Texas High School Coaches Association for twenty eight years.

Coach Lawrence and his wife Jenny have two children; Tim who lives in Jacksonville, FL, and Alicia Gilliam of Hondo, TX. The pride of the family however is their grandson, Ryan, who is one year old.

Lawrence received his AA degree from Tyler Junior College where he was a two-time All Conference baseball player, BS from Texas A&M University, and his MS from East Texas State University.