This information is used only to confirm your eligibility for financial aid. About 30% of all FAFSA filers are selected for verification, which requires schools to collect documentation to check the accuracy of the FAFSA information. It is important to submit this information in a timely manner so that your aid eligibility can be confirmed. Failure to complete the verification process will result in the cancellation of your financial aid.

If you are a Dependent Student: (Parental data was supplied on the FAFSA)
Your household includes the people whom your parent(s) will support between July 1, 2015 and June 30, 2016.

- Include the student; the parents (including a stepparent) even if the student doesn't live with the parents; the parents' other children if the parents will provide more than half of the children’s support from July 1, 2015, through June 30, 2016, or if the other children would be required to provide parental information if they were completing a FAFSA for 2015-2016.
- Include other people if they now live with the parents and the parents provide more than half of the other people's support and will continue to provide more than half of their support through June 30, 2016.

If you are an Independent Student: (Parental data not required on the FAFSA)
Your household includes the people whom you (and your spouse) will support between July 1, 2015 and June 30, 2016.

- Include the student; the student's spouse, if the student is married; the student’s or spouse's children if the student or spouse will provide more than half of the children's support from July 1, 2015 thru June 30, 2016, even if the children do not live with the student.
- Include other people if they now live with the student and the student or spouse provides more than half of the other people's support and will continue to provide more than half of their support through June 30, 2016.

Note: If we have reason to believe that the information regarding child support paid is not accurate, we may require additional documentation.

Child Support Paid
Did one of the persons listed in your or your parent’s household PAY child support in 2014?

☐ Yes  ☐ No

If yes, indicate the amount of any child support paid by member of household.
If asked, I will provide documentation of the payment of child support.
