HEAD COACH

DANIELLE ESSIX

Danielle Essix is entering her second season as Head Volleyball Coach for the Lady Rebels. During her first season at Lee College, the Lady Rebels won 10 games and finished 4 – 4 in Region XIV Conference play, advancing to the 2018 Region Tournament. She oversees all aspects of the program, including recruiting, technical support, scouting and game analysis, involvement in running summer camps, monitoring student – athlete’s academic progress, conducting practices and handling administrative tasks. Prior to her arrival to Lee College, Danielle spent two seasons (2016 – 2017) serving as the Assistant Coach for Blinn College. She assisted Blinn to a 24 – 9 finish while placing first in the conference and fourth in the region.

Prior to her arrival to Blinn, Essix spent two years as an assistant coach at her alma mater, East Central University. During her four – year career at East Central University, she finished ranked in the top 10 in 11 statistical categories, including seven spots in the top five. Essix ranks second in points (1,122.5), third in matches played (123), second in attacks (3,062), second in kills (961) and second in digs (989). In her senior season at East Central University, she led with 275 kills and 340 digs. Essix was named to the Second Team All – Conference in the Great American Conference.

Before joining East Central University, Essix was a three-sport athlete at Commerce High School, lettering in volleyball, basketball, and track, earning All – District awards every year. She is a Texas Sports Writers Association All – State selection and named district MVP at Commerce High School.

Essix earned both her Bachelor of Science degree in athletic training and her Master of Education in sports administration from East Central University.

ASSISTANT COACH

ANDREW “ANDY” HEFFELE

Andy Heffele is entering his second season as the assistant coach for the Lady Rebels. A native of Minnesota, he graduated from Eagan High School. Andy was a dual sport athlete participating in football and track. He continued his track career at the University of Minnesota Duluth where he was an All – Conference high jumper. After he relocated to Texas and before coming to Lee College, Andy coached high school homeschool volleyball. In 2017, his team was the 16U national championship runner up. Andy also has experience coaching club volleyball for TAV Houston. He has coached two teams at the USAV Girls Junior National Championships. Andy graduated with a Bachelor’s degree in Exercise Science from the University of Minnesota Duluth.
Lee College volleyball program has competed in the NJCAA Division I level since 1977. Throughout the years, the program has consistently performed at a high level, earning high national rankings and receiving many invitations to annual NJCAA national tournaments.

A new era is in store for the Lee College Lady Rebels Volleyball program. The Lady Rebels come into the 2019 volleyball season with a new coaching staff, new energy and new excitement. New Head Coach Danielle Essix is pleased to report that she and her new team are working well together. “They have done well with the things I’ve asked them to change. They’ve been good teammates and they’re working hard.”

Coach Essix has set high goals for her new team, stating that she would like to win Conference and Region this season. In addition to strong performances on the court, the Lady rebels are expected to succeed off of the court. “We want to make sure we are setting a good foundation for our student – athletes. We want them to be able to graduate from our program and move on to be successful.”

The 2019 Volleyball season will be exciting for both the fans and the Lady Rebels.

The Lady Rebels play in a state-of-the-art 26,000 square foot arena with seating to accommodate 1,500 raging Rebel fans. The facility features a 3,800 square foot wellness center, indoor walking track, VIP and conference room, concession areas, and locker rooms fit for visiting teams, Lee College students and employees.

Lee College athletes and students can use the Wellness Center by joining classes that will help develop the body and strength they choose to have. The Wellness Center provides a variety of weight lifting equipment as well as treadmills, stationary bikes and stepper machines.

Along with the Wellness Center, the Gymnasium has a complete weight lifting facility that will accommodate the needs of anyone who likes to use free weights.
Dr. Dennis Brown currently serves as the President of Lee College, a comprehensive community college of 6,500 credit students in Baytown, Texas, located 25 miles east of Houston. Lee College serves a population of over 220,000 people in Baytown and its surrounding communities. Located in the center of the Texas petrochemical industry, the college prepares workers for the ever increasing technologically based industry led by ExxonMobil, Bayer, Chevron Phillips and Enterprise.

Dr. Brown has 38 years of administrative and teaching experience in community colleges. He was Vice President of Instruction at El Paso Community College (EPCC) in El Paso, Texas, before joining Lee College. He has an Associate Degree from Arizona Western College, a Bachelor’s degree from Northern Arizona University, a Master’s degree from Arizona State University, and a Ph.D. from New Mexico State University.

Graeme received his Bachelor of Human Movement Studies (Honors), from the University of Queensland in Brisbane, Australia. He then moved to the United States, graduating from the University of Houston with his MS in Exercise Science. He remained in Houston to continue martial arts training under Grandmaster Kim Soo in Chayon-Ryu, where he attained his 4th degree Black Belt. He started teaching at Lee College in 1997 as an adjunct faculty, and became full time in July 2000. He served his first 18 months as Wellness Director. His first year as AD has been a steep learning curve, but he is inspired by the challenge. He hopes to improve the standing of athletics within Lee College and then in the Baytown community. Graeme is an active member of the Texas Association for Health, Physical Education, Recreation and Dance, Texas Outdoor Education Association, and the American College of Sports Medicine.
