

New Student Orientation

Contact the Counseling Center to Reserve Your Spot!

Who must attend?

All “first-time” college students and previous “dual/co-enrolled” high school students planning to enroll at Lee College are required to attend Orientation prior to registration.

What topics are addressed in Orientation?

- Degrees and certificates offered at Lee College
- What is an Advising Worksheet? Why is it important?
- How to use the Lee College Catalog
- How to use the Lee College Schedule Book
- MyLCCampus website users ID/passwords
- Important dates
- Payment methods
- Student services
- Other important information

What should I do before Orientation?

Before attending Orientation, you must:

- Complete and submit a Lee College application with official college or high school transcripts.
- Meet with an advisor or counselor to be pre-advised.
- Complete any testing requirements. (See an advisor or counselor for assistance.)
- Sign-up for Orientation.

Ways to sign up for Orientation:

- Visit the Counseling Center in Moler Hall or
- Call the Counseling Center at 281-425-6384 or
- E-mail counselor@lee.edu

Orientation sessions are ongoing and available on most:

- Mondays at 6:00 p.m.
- Wednesdays at 9:00 a.m.
- Thursdays at 2:00 p.m.
