Instrumentation technicians install, test, calibrate and perform general maintenance on some of the most sophisticated, extremely precise measuring and monitoring equipment in the world.

The Electrical Technology program prepares students for entry-level positions in the electrical field. Graduates of this program will be skilled in the installation and maintenance of various residential, commercial, and industrial electrical systems.

For any advising questions related to Instrumentation & Electrical Technology degrees or certificates, please contact:

Domingo Estrada
Technical Advisor
Perkins Grant
Rundell Hall 100B
destrada@lee.edu
(281) 425-6559

www.lee.edu