Is It Your Turn?

If you are observing the ceremony today and become inspired to start or continue your college education, please contact us so we can help to get you started! You can learn about programs of study and application steps at our website, www.lee.edu, or stop by the Student Success and Advising Center in Rundell Hall. We look forward to helping you pursue your dream.

Ceremonial Mace

The office of mace-bearer derives from medieval times in England when an official was taking office or opening court and needed a bodyguard. The mace, a formidable weapon, was held ready to protect the dignitary. From the sixteenth century in England and since colonial days in America, it has become a symbol of office only. The Lee College mace was designed by Tom Walton, former faculty member, and manufactured by the students of instructor Pat Wakefield at the Lee College Huntsville Center.

The Lee College Seal

The Lee College seal incorporates the year of the college's founding, 1934, with a star representing The Great State of Texas and the Latin motto, "Not without regard for the future."

Welcome To Lee College Commencement

To ensure an enjoyable and safe event for all graduates and their guests, please respect the following courtesies and rules:

Entrance and Exits

Enter through the front doors of the Performing Arts Center (PAC) only.

Once the ceremony begins and once the PAC capacity is met, based on fire code limits, no one will be admitted or allowed to re-enter. Viewing and seating are available in lecture hall S01 in the Nursing building (McNulty-Haddick).

Once the ceremony is over, you are free to leave through any exit.

Seating

Your entire party should be present at the time of seating.

No seats should be saved.

Move to the center of the rows and leave no empty seats.

Cell phones

Please put your phones on vibrate or shut them off.

If you need to take a call, please go out to the lobby as to not interrupt the ceremony.

Pictures

A photo service is provided and pictures of graduates will be available for download on the Lee College Event Gallery.

CONGRATS, GRADUATES!
