Students who have attempted 24 SCH and have a GPA below 2.0 will be placed on academic suspension and maybe denied enrollment for a minimum of one term (one long semester or 10-week summer session). The original version: Students and Lee College employees may choose to have one adviser present who is not a witness. Lee College employees may not have an attorney for their adviser; however, if students choose an attorney for an adviser, the college may elect to have an attorney present.
