

U.S. Rep. Brian Babin plans Veterans Town Hall on Oct. 11

U.S. Rep. Brian Babin (TX-36) will host a Veterans Town Hall at Lee College with a team of experts who can answer former military service members' questions about accessing healthcare and education benefits, navigating the claims process, determining discharge status, transitioning into civilian life and more.

The Veterans Town Hall will be held from 6-8 p.m., Tuesday, Oct. 11, in the Rundell Hall Conference Center on the Lee College campus. Those confirmed to participate include representatives from the Veterans Benefits Administration's Houston Regional Benefit Office, Michael E. DeBakey VA Medical Center, Houston National Cemetery, Texas Veterans Commission, Disabled American Veterans, Vietnam Veterans of America and the Lee College Veterans Center, among others.

Babin will moderate the Veterans Town Hall, which is open to all veterans. For more information about the event, contact Babin's office at 832.780.0966.
