

Spring Preview Night Scheduled for Nov. 8 in Liberty

LIBERTY, TX — The Lee College Education Center – South Liberty County is opening its doors to potential students 6-7:30 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 8. Students and families are invited to meet program faculty members, tour the facility, have their questions answered, receive advice on course selections, register on the spot, and get help with financial paperwork. A Financial Assistance Workshop is scheduled for 5:30-7:30 p.m. the same day in Room 124. Light refreshments will be provided.

Spring Preview Night

- Date: Thurs., Nov. 8, 2018
- Time: 6-7:30 p.m.
- Location: Lee College Education Center – South Liberty County
1715 TX-146
Liberty, TX 77575

“Attending the Spring Preview Night is an excellent opportunity to explore the academic programs offered in Liberty and meet with the instructors who are committed to educational success,” said Wesley Wells, Education Center manager. “We welcome all prospective students to come take a closer look at the Lee College Education Center – South Liberty County.”

To attend, register online at www.lee.edu/workforce or call the Center for Workforce and Community Development at 281.425.6311.