Office of Recruitment & Outreach

The Office of Recruitment & Outreach offers new and returning students a personal contact before and during their experience at Lee College. This is done by reaching out to the community through visits to local and area schools, churches, clubs, organizations, businesses, and community events.

Our goal is to increase the awareness of Lee College and promote a college-going culture among our students by hosting special events and providing one-on-one service and support.
FIND A CAREER
My Next Move