

Women's History Month 2024

In March we honor and celebrate the courageous and inspiring women who have shaped history and who continue to create a brighter future.

Join us for a variety of virtual and hands-on activities to engage, challenge, and enrich students, employees, and the public. All are welcome. Contact gward@lee.edu for more information.

Planned Events

Sat., March 2 — FotoFest Photography Reception

5-7 p.m. in the PAC Art Gallery

FotoFest 2024: Glassell School of Art Analog Photography Exhibition

Light refreshments will be provided.

Sat., March 2 — The Revolutionists

The Revolutionists by Lauren Gunderson will be performed at 7:30 p.m. in the Performing Arts Center (PAC.) The play is about four bold women who lived in France during the Reign of Terror — French Revolution in 1793. Gunderson also wrote the music. It's a grand surrealistic comedy about violence and legacy, art and activism, feminism and terrorism, and how to change the world. Its chief subjects are playwright Olympe De Gouge, assassin Charlotte Corday, former queen Marie Antoinette, and Haitian rebel Marianne Angelle. Tickets are $5.

Wed., March 20 — Author Talk

4 p.m. via WebEx: <https://leecollege.webex.com/leecollege/j.php?MTID=mf81ea3011fac30ae73142532c16c4a53>

Laura Trethewey, author of The Deepest Map: The High Stakes Race to Chart the World's Oceans, is a freelance journalist who covers ocean science and culture. Here is a review of her book with more information: <https://www.nytimes.com/2023/07/05/books/review/the-deepest-map-laura-trethewey.html>

Tue., March 26 — FotoFest Artist Talk and Reception

Glassell School of Art Analog Photography Exhibition: Reception and Artist Talk on Tuesday, March 26, from 1-3 p.m. in the PAC Art Gallery.

Light refreshments will be provided.

For more information, contact gward@lee.edu.

■ Live Chat

FIND A CAREER
My Next Move